WESTERN IN SUMMARY

Western Kentucky University is located in Bowling Green, Kentucky, on a large hill locally known as College Heights.

Enrollment for the fall semester 1966 was 8,710.

The Undergraduate Division offers four-year programs leading to the Bachelor of Arts, the Bachelor of Science, and the Bachelor of Music Degrees. Two-year programs are offered leading to the Associate of Arts Degree in Agricultural Technology and Management, Industrial Technology, Small Business Management, Data Processing, and Secretarial Science. A two-year program is offered in nursing leading to the Associate of Science Degree in Nursing. A one-year Secretarial Science program is also offered.

Thirty-two (32) academic majors, thirty-seven (37) academic minors, and thirteen (13) areas of concentration are offered. A number of professional and pre-professional curricula are also offered.

Three general curricula—teacher education, arts and science, and special studies—are provided.

The Graduate School offers the Master of Science in Engineering Physics, and the Master of Arts in English, History, and Education. Additional graduate programs are being developed and will be implemented as soon as such programs are approved.
